

Training Vault

Manage, update and distribute your training and education materials with a unique and flexible on-line system

Outline:

- A secure web-based system to store, print and distribute your training content
- Developed through close consultation with training and education providers
- True print-on-demand service for both mono and colour materials
- Wide and flexible paper and binding choices, including wire-o binding and lay-flat binding: it's your spec, not ours
- Suitable for any size and type of training or educational materials company

We cover all the options!

We also offer, among other services:

- POD as a stand-alone service and as a wholesale/retail model
- Ebook conversion and distribution
- Short and long-run printing, direct mail and a new direct-to-consumer retail site via:
The Great British Book Shop
www.thegreatbritishbookshop.co.uk

Features and benefits

- Eliminates storage and other problems associated with conventional printing
- Allows instant updating of content and subscriber information
- Ability to manage, order and distribute information at module, pack or individual item level
- Allows bespoke provision of module contents to suit students' requirements
- Provides direct delivery to students if required
- Comprehensive student list management system
- Generates auto-reminders for orders relating to linked elements
- Can be linked to our wholesale and retail models, and our online outlet, The Great British Book Shop

"I would recommend PODW to anyone who is looking for a print partner as they have met all of our expectations."

Matt Ayson, Project Delivery Manager at Home Learning College